FUNDAMENTALS OF SYSTEMIC COACHING

Metasysteme Coaching's success fundamentally rests on a very specific, behavioral and highly innovative systemic coaching approach. This approach integrates original linguistic skills to implement novel biological and quantum theory frames of reference with an intimate, almost contemplative, spiritual personal posture. This practical professional coach stance embraces obvious evidence that a-causal coherencies and fractal resonances bridge our coach-and-client inner worlds and material realities.

A systemic coach paradigm embraces the perspective that one same underlying truth orchestrates a holographic universal unity. This unity is manifest in our lives, in our souls and in our material environments through shared patterns and meaning.

With intense training to acquire skills in a specific range of behavior and dialogue, a systemic coach can develop access and presence to a wide range of synchronic resonances. In their everyday personal lives, Metasysteme Coaching professionals continuously learn to embrace this systemic perspective.

The "coaching fundamentals" systemic coach training program detailed below provides a comprehensive learning process both for confirmed coaches and for beginners in the coaching field. This coach-training cycle is ACSTH certified by the International Coach Federation and/or provides equivalent CCEU hours.

Beyond the coach population, our proposed systemic coaching skill set can very usefully concern all those who wish to learn how to use performing communication tools for in other related fields. Among other professionals, this can concern leaders, managers, entrepreneurs, recruiters, sales representatives, consultants, HR professionals, trainers, journalists, etc.

The powerful dimension of this relatively short coach training cycle rests on its original learning architecture, in total coherence with the spirit of systemic coaching. The learning process is immediately focused on acquiring advanced coaching skills, addressing each participant as a potential master systemic coach rather than as a beginner. The taught skills are distilled to their finest practical dimension, exempt of superfluous theory. The resulting accelerated learning process is focused on acquiring the art (know-how) of essential masterful systemic coaching.

The total "Fundamentals of Systemic Coaching" training program represents a relatively complete practical educational program on the true core or soul of masterful systemic coaching. This comprehensive program also includes participation in :

- A highly structured community of extensively practice systemic coach skills.
- A full day of supervision and mentoring to prepare for future development as a coach

Participants need to commit to attend the whole program.

HOW : Each two-day session is conceived as a focused and practical behavioral training environment focused on acquiring systemic coaching skills (know-how). The participants will find a setting where they will be asked to actively practice real-life learning situations focused on acquiring behavioral coaching skills and communication techniques. By following this program, participants learn to become advanced systemic coaches.

WHERE : Bucharest (in English), Madrid and Santiago, Chile (Spanish), Paris (in French). The precise address for each program in the above locations are communicated to participants following their enrollment.

Note that the Romania location is geographically close to Serbia, Croatia, Slovenia, Hungary, Slovakia and a host of other Balkan or East European countries. Participants in the Bucharest Coaching School may also come from Moldavia, Ukraine, Bulgaria and Turkey, and has attracted students from as far as Finland and Italy. The Madrid and Santiago "Fundamentals" program is the only one offered in Western Europe in English.

The "Fundamentals" coach training program can also be organized online, in other locations and "in-house" within organizations for any constituted group of twenty participants.

TRAINER : Buchares and Paris: Alain Cardon, MCC (Master Certified Coach- International Coach Federation).
